

THE CLOTHESLINE

PROJECT

Bringing Witness to Violence Against Women

The Clothesline Project

A visual display that bears witness to violence against women by hanging a clothesline with shirts that have been decorated to represent a particular woman's experience with violence.

The Quesnel Women's Resource Centre
will be hosting several shirt making sessions:

690 McLean Street

Phone: 250-992-8472

Website: www.qwrc.ca

March 31st, 10-12 pm

April 6th, 1-3 pm

April 7th, 10-12 pm

T-shirts and shirt decorating materials will be supplied during these sessions.

You do not have to be artistic to create a moving, personal tribute. Any remembrance is appropriate, whether simple or elaborate, painted or sewn.

Help break the silence about violence against women by supporting this project.

If you or someone you care about is experiencing abuse there is help available.

Please call the Women's Resource Centre

Come back April 13th between 10-4 pm for our open house where you can view our Clothesline Project and tour the Centre

This project is made possible by funding from the Department of Justice Canada.
